Participant Terms & General Guidelines

Vehicle registration must be available upon entry to the grounds

In consideration for the rights to participate, participants release and discharge the show promoters, Calhoun County Agricultural & Industrial Society (CCAIS), workers, volunteers, and all others that are connected to said show of all known and unknown damages, injuries, and loss of property.

Participants and guests acknowledge the contagious nature of COVID-19 and that many public health authorities still recommend practicing social distancing, and acknowledge that they are voluntarily choosing to attend event(s) at the Calhoun County Fairgrounds and assume the risk that they may be exposed to COVID-19. CCAIS and the event organizer(s) cannot guarantee that event attendees will not become infected with COVID-19 and that attending events at the Calhoun County Fairgrounds could increase their risk.

Show management reserves the right to restrict participants and spectators to acceptable behavior during all activities. The following will not be tolerated: tire spinning, burnouts, intoxication, foul language, or any other behavior that management views as objectionable.

Participants shall at all times observe all safety and traffic regulations, maintaining vehicle and conduct befitting a representative of the sport of street rodding and custom cruising.

No golf carts or scooters allowed without proof of handicap (must show special rider on homeowner's policy to cover the golf cart or scooter and have a permit from the fairgrounds office).

No pets allowed except in camping areas (must be on a leash at all times).
